RE: THERMO DESIGN INSULATION

---

Thermo Design has been a major trade contractor on dozens of our projects for more than 20 years. TDI has the management and man power capability to work in any geographical area . They have an experienced and dependable management team with little or no 'turnover' . We have been able to rely on TDI for expertise in difficult and challenging situations and projects and highly recommend TDI to any perspective clients.

Sincerely,
GLACIER PRO Construction Management Inc.
